TRAINING DIVISION, BPR&D

Genesis

The Training Division traces its origins to the very founding of the BPR&D. Three years after the Bureau came into being, the Training Division was set up in September, 1973, with a view to aiding and advising States and UTs on aspects relating to training of police officers. Since those early days, the Training Division of the BPR&D, along with its outlying units have evolved as platforms for facilitating advanced training in various domains of police along with attitudinal changes in the police, in line with the aspirations of an evolving & dynamic society.

Mandate

The Training Division has remained the operational arm of the BPR&D, formulating policies on training of police personnel of all genres - conducting, sponsoring and coordinating capacity building activities, identifying training needs, designing strategies, and mentoring the Subsidiary Units of the Bureau, including the Central Detective Training Institutions (CDTIs) at Hyderabad, Chandigarh, Kolkata, Jaipur, Ghaziabad and Bengaluru, as the new CDTIs are being set up at Srinagar and Agartala and the Central Academy for Police Training (CAPT), Bhopal.

The Training Division remains a unique instrument available to the Government of India for leveraging the training resources of the Indian Police. Through its active engagement with the State Governments, the Division is able to effectively convey Central Policies and Advisories on Police Training, while encountering their implementation on the ground.

The Training Division is also the focal point for all training activities on issues of professional concern in relation to foreign countries and police entities, based abroad. Not only is the Training Division actively coordinating and conducting training of foreign police and security personnel, it is also providing policy inputs on a range of issues such as Capacity Building for Counter Terrorism, including in the context of India's multiple Joint Working Groups (JWGs).

Combining traditional wisdom with modern learning, the Training Division has helped the BPR&D occupy commanding heights of police training in India. What makes the Training Division stand out as an entity, in the midst of multiple training facilities spread across the country, is its ability to cater equally to Inspector Generals of Police as well as to the Head Constables. The Training Division, caters equally to CAPFs and CPOs, as it does to the civil police in States and UTs, identifying with the common objective of a more knowledgeable, and better sensitized police force. Its efforts find resonance not just in flagging regional training needs, but with national perspective at their core, they allow a happy mix of sharing and cross mingling of experiences and learning, from across the country.

मुझे यह जानकर प्रसन्नता हो रही है कि पुलिस अनुसंधान एवं विकास ब्यूरो 'भारतीय पुलिस प्रशिक्षण संस्थानों की निर्देशिका (DIPTI)' का तीसरा संस्करण प्रकाशित कर रहा है, जिसमें देश के लगभग 350 पुलिस प्रशिक्षण संस्थानों के आधारभूत संरचना, मानव संसाधनों सहित कई महत्वपूर्ण जानकारियाँ उपलब्ध हैं।

पुलिस अनुसंधान एवं विकास ब्यूरो ने राज्यों, केंद्रीय सशस्त्र पुलिस बलों, केंद्रीय पुलिस संगठनों और अन्य हितधारकों के मध्य संपर्क बिन्दु के रूप में कार्य करते हुए विभिन्न कार्यक्रमों, अनुसंधानों पहलों, आधुनिकीकरण के प्रयासों और प्रमुख प्रकाशनों के माध्यम से भारतीय पुलिस बलों को मजबूत किया है। माननीय प्रधानमंत्री श्री नरेंद्र मोदी जी के नेतृत्व में बीते 10 सालों में सुरक्षा बलों के अत्याधुनिकीकरण के अनेक कार्यों के साथ-साथ उनके जीवन स्तर को सुदृढ़ बनाने के अभिनव प्रयास हुए हैं।

मुझे विश्वास है कि पुलिस अनुसंधान एवं विकास ब्यूरो की निर्देशिका DIPTI के माध्यम से देश के पुलिस प्रशिक्षण संस्थानों में क्षमता निर्माण, सभी पुलिस बलों को एक देशव्यापी प्रशिक्षण नेटवर्क से जोड़ने और अन्य महत्वपूर्ण कर्तव्यों के पालन को स्पष्ट दिशानिर्देश और गति मिलेगी।

DIPTI के तीसरे संस्करण के संकलन एवं प्रकाशन में पुलिस अनुसंधान एवं विकास ब्यूरो का प्रयास सराहनीय है। मैं, निर्देशिका के तीसरे संस्करण के सफल प्रकाशन हेतु अपनी शुभकामनाएँ प्रेषित करता हूँ।

यह अत्यंत हर्ष का विषय है कि भारतीय पुलिस प्रशिक्षण संस्थानों की निर्देशिका (DIPTI) के तीसरे संस्करण का प्रकाशन पुलिस अनुसंधान एवं विकास ब्यूरो (बीपीआरएंडडी) कर रहा है। इसमें राज्यों, केंद्र शासित प्रदेशों, सी.ए.पी.एफ. और सी.पी.ओ. के प्रशिक्षण से संबंधित जानकारी संकलित की गई है। बेहतर पुलिसिंग से संबंधित सामग्री का प्रकाशन बीपीआरएंडडी करता आ रहा है।

मुझे पूर्ण विश्वास है कि यह प्रकाशन पुलिस प्रशिक्षण संस्थानों की क्षमताओं को विकसित करने और आपस में अनुभवों को साझा करने में सहायक होगा। साथ ही प्रशिक्षण कार्यक्रमों को तैयार करने और पुलिस के सामने आने वाली नई चुनौतियों का भी प्रभावी रूप से निराकरण करने में सहायक सिद्ध होगा।

मैं, श्री बालाजी श्रीवास्तव, महानिदेशक, बीपीआरएंडडी और उनके सक्षम अधिकारियों की टीम को इस महत्वपूर्ण प्रकाशन के लिए हार्दिक बधाई देता हूं। इस प्रकार के प्रकाशन की निरंतरता जरूरी है। साथ ही विभिन्न पुलिस प्रशिक्षण संस्थानों के मध्य एक मजबूत साझेदारी बनाने में इस निर्देशिका की उपयोगिता के लिए पूर्ण आशान्वित हूँ।

MESSAGE

I am happy that the third edition of the Directory of Indian Police Training Institutions (DIPTI) is being published by the Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPR&D). DIPTI contains relevant data on police training institutions in the country and will help police forces in formulating their training policies for better quality in delivery of services. This has especially gained importance with the need to roll-out the new Criminal Laws in the country in a timely manner.

2. DIPTI has been developed after taking into account the need to continually assess arrangements for police training and improve methodologies for effective policing in an ever-changing scenario. It serves as a consolidated repository, providing comprehensive insights into the training infrastructure, budget allocations and human resources available across the country.

3. I would like to take this opportunity to place on record my appreciation to the DG, BPR&D, Shri Balaji Srivastava, and his team of officers for their efforts in bringing forth this publication. Their dedication and commitment to this task are commendable. I also extend my commendation for the assistance and cooperation rendered by the Heads of the Police Forces of States and Union Territories, as well as those of the Central Armed Police Forces (CAPFs) and Central Police Organizations (CPOs).

The maiden issue of the Directory of Indian Police Training Institutions (DIPTI) was instituted by the BPR&D in its 50th year, during the Golden Jubilee Celebrations. Its second edition was released during the 38th National Symposium of Heads of Police Training Institutions at the CDTI, Ghaziabad on 2nd June, 2022. It has been our resolve to make 'DIPTI' an annual publication and true to our commitment, we are now publishing its third edition.

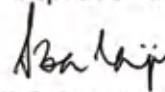

The process of country-wide mapping of police training infrastructure, budget and resources has been a ground-breaking exercise as it promotes collaboration among the training institutions by providing a comprehensive overview of the available resources. This directory will be of assistance to our Police Training Academies / Institutes and policymakers assuring that the resources are not idle and shared optionally.

The third edition of this publication has been updated with more comprehensive data and it is our earnest effort that the Directory is both comprehensive as well as user-friendly so as to be optimally utilized by policymakers and trainers in different parts of the country.

I express my gratitude to the Heads of Police organisations and institutes for wholeheartedly supporting BPR&D in the timely compilation of data.

My compliments to Sh. Anurag Kumar, Director (Training), and his team for their resolute and persistent efforts in executing the tasks of data collation and compilation for this publication.

I look forward to feedback and suggestions from readers and contributors, as this would help us to further amend and improve this publication.
