TRAINING DIVISION BPR&D

Genesis

The Training Division traces its origins to the very founding of the BPR&D. Three years after the Bureau came into being, the Training Division was set up in September, 1973, with a view to aiding and advising States and UTs on aspects relating to training of police officers. Since those early days, the Training Division of the BPR&D, along with its outlying units have evolved as platforms for facilitating advanced training in various domains of police along with attitudinal changes in the police, in line with the aspirations of an evolving society.

Mandate

The Training Division has remained the operational arm of the BPR&D, formulating policies on training of police personnel of all genres - conducting, sponsoring and coordinating capacity building activities, identifying training needs, designing strategies, and mentoring the Subsidiary Units of the Bureau, including the 5 Central Detective Training Institutions (CDTIs) at Hyderabad, Chandigarh, Kolkata, Jaipur & Ghaziabad, and the Central Academy for Police Training (CAPT), Bhopal.

The Training Division remains a unique instrument available to the Government of India for leveraging the training resources of the Indian Police. Through its active engagement with the State Governments, the Division is able to effectively convey Central Policies and Advisories on Police Training, while encountering their implementation on the ground.

The Training Division is also the focal point for all training activities on issues of professional concern in relation to foreign countries and police entities, based abroad. Not only is the Training Division actively coordinating and conducting training of foreign police and security personnel, it is also providing policy inputs on a range of issues such as Capacity Building for Counter Terrorism, including in the context of India's multiple Joint Working Groups (JWGs).

Combining traditional wisdom with modern learning, the Training Division has helped the BPR&D occupy commanding heights of police training in India. What makes the Training Division stand out as an entity, in the midst of multiple training facilities spread across the country, is its ability to cater equally to Inspector Generals of Police as well as to the Head Constables. The Training Division, caters equally to CAPFs and CPOs, as it does to the civil police in States and UTs, identifying with the common objective of a more knowledgeable, and better sensitized police force. Its efforts find resonance not just in flagging regional training needs, but with national perspective at their core, they allow a happy mix of sharing and cross mingling of experiences and learnings, from across the country.

मुझे यह जानकर प्रसन्नता हो रही है कि पुलिस अनुसंधान एवं विकास ब्यूरो भारतीय पुलिस प्रशिक्षण संस्थानों की निर्देशिका (DIPTI) का दूसरा संस्करण प्रकाशित कर रहा है, जिसमें देश के लगभग 300 पुलिस प्रशिक्षण संस्थानों के संसाधनों की जानकारी है। क्षमता निर्माण बीपीआरएंडडी का महत्वपूर्ण अधिदेश है, इसलिए प्रशिक्षण आवश्यकता विश्लेषण (TNA) और पुलिस अधिकारियों एवं कार्मिकों के संपूर्ण पेशेवर प्रशिक्षण के लिए नीति निर्धारण से संबंधित आकलन हेतु मौजूदा प्रशिक्षण सुविधाओं से जुड़े आंकड़ों की मैपिंग करना तथा उन्हें अद्यतन करना एक अपरिहार्य शर्त है।

यह प्रकाशन बीपीआरएंडडी, सभी राज्यों/केंद्र शासित प्रदेशों, सीएपीएफ, सीपीओ एवं सभी पुलिस बलों के सहयोगात्मक प्रयासों का परिणाम है, जो उन्हें देशव्यापी प्रशिक्षण नेटवर्क से जोड़ने में मदद करता है तथा जिससे संचार व्यवस्था, ज्ञान साझा करने, योजना बनाने एवं विभिन्न प्रशिक्षण कार्यक्रम आयोजित करने में सुविधा प्राप्त होती है।

DIPTI के दूसरे संस्करण के संकलन एवं प्रकाशन में पुलिस अनुसंधान एवं विकास ब्यूरो का प्रयास सराहनीय है। मुझे विश्वास है कि राज्य/केन्द्र शासित प्रदेश, सीएपीएफ, सीपीओ उपलब्ध जानकारी का अधिक से अधिक उपयोग करेंगे और ज्ञान, विशेषज्ञता एवं संसाधनों को साझा करने से और अधिक लाभान्वित होंगे। मैं, DIPTI के दूसरे संस्करण के सफल प्रकाशन हेतु अपनी शुभकामनाएं प्रेषित करता हूँ।

मुझे यह जानकर प्रसन्नता हो रही है कि पुलिस अनुसंधान एवं विकास ब्यूरो, भारतीय पुलिस प्रशिक्षण संस्थानों की निर्देशिका (DIPTI) का दूसरा संस्करण प्रकाशित कर रहा है। इसमें हमारे राज्यों, केंद्र शासित प्रदेशों, सी.ए.पी.एफ और सी.पी.ओ के प्रशिक्षण संस्थानों के बुनियादी ढांचे, सुविधाओं और मानव संसाधनों की व्यापक जानकारी है। यह प्रकाशन अनुभवों को साझा करने, क्षमताओं को विकसित करने और प्रशिक्षण कार्यक्रमों को डिजाइन करने में अत्यन्त उपयोगी साबित होगा और पुलिस के सामने आने वाली नित्य नई चुनौतियों का भी प्रभावी रूप से निराकरण करने में सहायक सिद्ध होगा। इससे देश भर के प्रशिक्षण संस्थानों के मध्य पारस्परिक सहयोग को बढ़ावा भी मिलेगा। इसके साथ ही, समकालीन समय के अनुरूप प्रशिक्षण के तरीकों में सुधार भी सुनिश्चित होगा।

मैं इस महत्वपूर्ण और उपयोगी प्रकाशन के लिए श्री बालाजी श्रीवास्तव, महानिदेशक, बीपीआरएंडडी और उनके सक्षम अधिकारियों की टीम को हार्दिक बधाई देता हूं। मैं विभिन्न पुलिस प्रशिक्षण संस्थानों के मध्य एक मजबूत साझेदारी बनाने में इस निर्देशिका की उपयोगिता एवं महत्ता के लिए पूर्ण आशान्वित हूं।

MESSAGE

I am delighted to learn that the BPR&D is going to release the second edition of the Directory of Indian Police Training Institutions (DIPTI) during the 38th National Symposium of Heads of Police Training Institutions at CDTI, Ghaziabad on 2-3 June 2022.

2. To periodically review the arrangements for police training and formulate training policies at the national level, it was imperative to have a consolidated repository of the training infrastructure, capabilities and resources in the country. The publications of DIPTI in 2019 achieved this objective, and the second edition of this publication would undoubtedly build on the interaction, exchange of ideas, best practices and mutual learning among the several police training institutions spread across the country.

3. I would like to place on record my appreciation for the efforts made by the BPR&D in coming out with this very useful and relevant publication. The help and cooperation from the Heads of the Police Forces of States, CAPFs, CPOs and UTs for timely providing the necessary information must also be commended.

4. I am sure the BPR&D will continue to work on the modernization and training of State/UT Police through their valuable publications.

MESSAGE

The Directory of Indian Police Training Institutions "DIPTI" was launched by the BPR&D in its 50th year, amid the golden jubilee celebrations. It was our commitment to make "DIPTI" an annual publication. And true to our commitment, we are now publishing the second edition of DIPTI.

The first edition of this publication was well received and got an overwhelming response from police forces all across the country. The country-wide mapping of Police training infrastructure and resources was a humongous and ground-breaking exercise. This directory has proved to be of great help to our Training Academies, Training Institutes, and policymakers in establishing a healthy interface and sharing knowledge and expertise on various aspects of training and capacity building.

The second edition of this publication has been updated with more comprehensive data on police training institutions. It has been our sincere endeavour to ensure that the Directory is both exhaustive and user-friendly so that it can be optimally utilized by policymakers and trainers of all levels in different parts of the country.

I express my gratitude to the Heads of Police organisations and institutes for wholeheartedly supporting us in the timely compilation of data for this publication.

My compliments to Sh. B.S. Jaiswal, Director (Training), and his team for their resolute and persistent efforts in executing the tasks of data collation and compilation for this publication.

Feedback and suggestions from readers and contributors are very welcome as they would help us to further refine and improve this publication.

MESSAGE

A journey of a thousand miles, they say, begins with a single, step. It seems like it was only yesterday that the 'Directory of Indian Police Training Institutions', lovingly acronymed 'DIPTI', was born. Between taking those first, tentative steps in the closing months of 2019, under the pioneering efforts of the then Director Training, Ms Anupama Chandra Nilekar - to reaching out in significant numbers to its ever growing band of readers - DIPTI has come of age!

Since it's founding in 1970, the Bureau of Police Research & Development (BPR&D), has continued to provide a stable platform to police agencies across India for debate & deliberations; reaching out & sharing. As in its inaugural venture, in its second edition too, DIPTI seeks to reach out to the stakeholders, with data and details, that can be used for closer engagement among police institutions committed to capacity building.

While the Bureau has played its role in collecting, collating and arranging data, at its core, DIPTI aspires for ownership by the entire police community of India. When a child is born in traditional Indian homes, there is often a debate about who it resembles the most. But for DIPTI, the issue stands settled - across the myriad data, it reflects and resembles the ethos and aspirations of each one of the multiple police entities that contributed to its crafting!

Team 'Training', under its dynamic leader, Shri B. Shanker Jaiswal, deserves all praise for sparing no effort in launching this value-added edition of DIPTI at the 38th National Symposium of Police Training. The best reward for their endeavour would be an extensive use of resources flagged by DIPTI for the larger cause of the Indian Police!
