MESSAGE

BPR&D, in its 50th year, presents the first ever edition of the publication “DIPTI”, acronym for “the Directory of Indian Police Training Institutions, as on 31.03.2019. “DIPTI” shall now be published annually by the Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPR&D).

2. Capacity building is an important mandate of the BPR&D. As a nodal agency at the national level, it recognizes the need to map the existing training facilities and capacities of the Police Training Institutions of the States / UTs / CAPFs & CPOs, for their effective utilization. “DIPTI” contains data related to training policy, capacity, availability of human resource and infrastructure at the Training Institutions of Police Forces. As collection and analysis of the data is an extensive exercise, our unequivocal emphasis remains on coordination, accuracy and promptness for achieving the desired objectives.

3. Publication of this first edition of “DIPTI” is an outcome of the collaborative efforts of the BPR&D and Chiefs of Police Forces of all States / UTs / CAPFs & CPOs, who have furnished the requisite data pertaining to their organizations as requested for by the Bureau.

4. I compliment the team of the Training Division under Smt. Anupama Nilekar Chandra, IG/ Director (Training), BPR&D, for completing this maiden venture in a time - bound manner.

5. I am confident that this publication will facilitate interaction for the purpose of sharing and networking of training facilities and resources, for their optimal and meaningful utilization.

6. I would appreciate if the readers could kindly send their suggestions to us for further improving the contents and quality of the publication, as there is always scope for improvement. We welcome any constructive feedback in this regard.

MESSAGE

Bureau of Police Research and Development has been making significant efforts in furtherance of its endeavor to promote Good Practices & Standards in the field of Policing in the country.

The “Directory of Indian Police Training Institutions” i.e. “DIPTI” is one such initiatives of the BPR&D to present to all the stakeholders, the details of relevant infrastructure, both basic as well as state of the art, available in Police Training Institutions in the country.

This First Edition of DIPTI has been possible only due to cooperation from various Police Organizations across the country. I thank the Directors General of Police and the Training Directorates of all States /UTs / CAPFs / CPOs, who enriched the Directory by furnishing the requisite data pertaining to their Police Training Institutions and assisting the BPR&D in releasing the publication.

I would like to place on record our sincere gratitude for the valuable cooperation extended by all the stakeholders in bringing out this publication. I hope that it will lead to extensive cooperation in utilizing the available infrastructure and resources at Police Training Institutions countrywide.

MESSAGE

The Training Division of the Bureau of Police Research and Development is responsible for comprehensive in-service training of all Police personnel in the country. As the nodal agency of the Government of India, so far as Police Training is concerned, it has the important task of standardizing training procedure and framing training policies for skill up-gradation of Police officers of all ranks.

This First Edition of the “Directory of Indian Police Training Institutions” (DIPTI) has its genesis in the idea of assessing training resources available with various Police Training Institutions and planning for its optimal utilization. DIPTI has been possible only due to incessant cooperation towards sharing of data, on behalf of various Police Training Organizations in the country, in this regard.

It is a matter of pride for the Training Division, BPR&D, to be associated with the publication of “DIPTI”. I wish to place on record my deep appreciation for the untiring efforts of the Training Division Team, which has made this publication possible.

I am grateful to our stakeholders for entrusting faith and confidence in BPR&D for this responsibility of national importance.
