Newsletter of the Bureau of Police Research and Development, Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. of India

Hon'ble Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation, Shri Amit Shah and other dignitaries, at the 51st Foundation Day Function of the BPR&D.

Message

I feel elated at being appointed as DG, BPR&D. While taking over the charge of the Bureau, I happened to glance through the Succession Board, and was reminded of the many Police luminaries who have occupied the office before me. The thought of the good work done by them is a pleasant reminder of the wonderful team of officers & staff who contributed to taking the Bureau to newer heights. A lot has been accomplished over the last 50 years, but a lot more needs to be done in the coming days. Together with Team BPR&D, I look forward to making a beginning towards fulfilling the Prime Minister's dream of promoting 'Citizen-Centric' policing.

After I took over, the immediate task at hand, was the challenge of coordinating the 51st Foundation Day Celebrations of the Bureau. In this magazine, you will find articles and pictures of the historic occasion, taking centre stage. Shri Amit Shah, the Hon'ble Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation was the Chief Guest at the function, which was also graced by several other luminaries.

I look forward to a fulfilling tenure in the Bureau, and call upon all the well wishers of the Indian Police and readers of this magazine to join hands in making a better trained and more sensitised police force, a reality.
