

NEWSLETTER

BUREAU OF POLICE RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

Volume : 7 & 8

Nov. 2011 - Jan. 2012

Issue - 4

BPR&D Celebrates 41st Foundation Day Bureau has pivotal role to play in Police modernization: HM

Inaugural Ceremony of 41st BPR&D Foundation Day

Bureau of Police Research and Development celebrated its 41st Foundation Day at Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi on 23-12-2011. The celebrations included Investiture Ceremony where Shri Jitendra Singh, Union Minister of State for Home presided and gave away President's Police Medals for Distinguished Services and Police Medal for Meritorious Services for the year 2011 to BPR&D Officers. Union Home Secretary, Shri R.K. Singh was the Guest of Honour and Director, IB, Shri Nehchal Sandhu shared dias with Minister on the occasion. Heads of many Police Forces i.e. DGs CRPF, BSF, SSB, ITBP and Director CBI were also present on the occasion.

Sh. Vikarm Srivastava, DG, BPR&D delivered the welcome address in which he said that since its inception BPR&D has done 183 research projects on various subjects and executed MOU with 35

Sh. Vikram Srivastava, DG, BPR&D addressing the audience

Sh. Jitender Singh, Union Minister of State for Home unveiling the CAPT Flag

Universities across the Country to promote advanced research and training in policing. He underlined the importance of IT and related technology in improving policing. He also mentioned about the new challenges befalling the policing and internal security. He urged to factor-in new HRD practices in policing.

Hon'ble Minister unveiled the flag of the newly formed CAPT, Bhopal.

The Dr. T N Mishra, former Director, NPA gave an excellent exposition of the motto of the newly formed Academy(CAPT), taken from the Fourth Chapter of Bhagwad Gita. The Motto--Sidhih Bhavati Karmaja-- Right Action Brings Results.

Shri Jitender Singh, Union Minister of State for Home in his speech highlighted the need for change in the Police. The Indian Police instead of being perceived as a symbol of fear should be seen as the

A Group photo of all the Medal Awardees with Hon'ble Minister

DG, BPR&D, Sh. Vikram Srivastava, presenting mementoes to Sh. R K. Singh, Union Home Secretary and Dr. T. N. Mishra , former Director, NPA

Citizen's best friend, he said. This image makeover of a People Friendly police can only be brought about by providing quality services to the citizens, he added.

He emphasized the need for quality and promoting best practices and quest for excellence. Praising role of BPR&D in Modernization of Police Forces and Correctional Administration of the Country, he underlined the leadership role expected from this apex organization.

He said that new dimensions are being added to role of police everyday, challenges are multiplying. New forms of organized crimes like Human Trafficking, Cyber Crimes , Left Wing Extremism, Narco-Terrorism etc. require a new vision for the police. This is the vision that BPR&D has to create and help realize.

He congratulated the DG and his team for the good work being done by BPR&D.

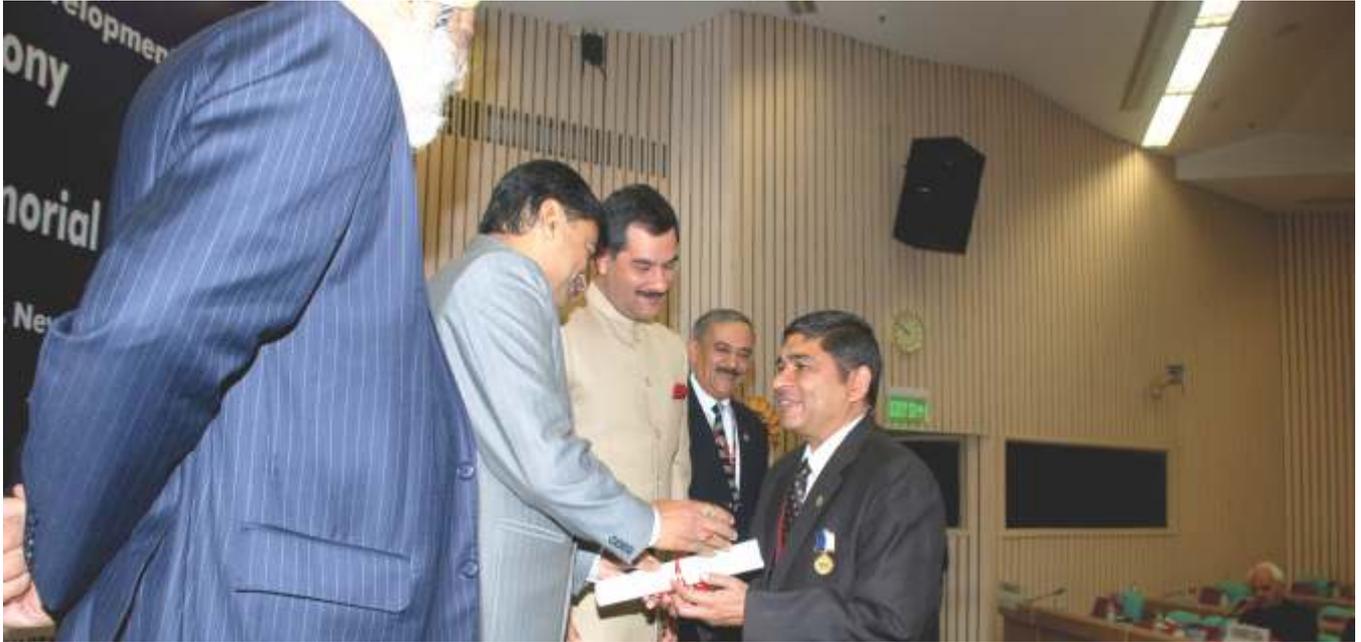

Later, Dr. Anand Swarup Gupta Memorial Lecture was delivered by H.E. Shri Nikhil Kumar, the Governor of Nagaland. In his address he emphasized the need for Good Governance which in turn depends on developing good mechanisms for delivery of services required for public good

DG, BPR&D Felicitating Sh. Nikhil Kumar, HE, the Governor of Nagaland

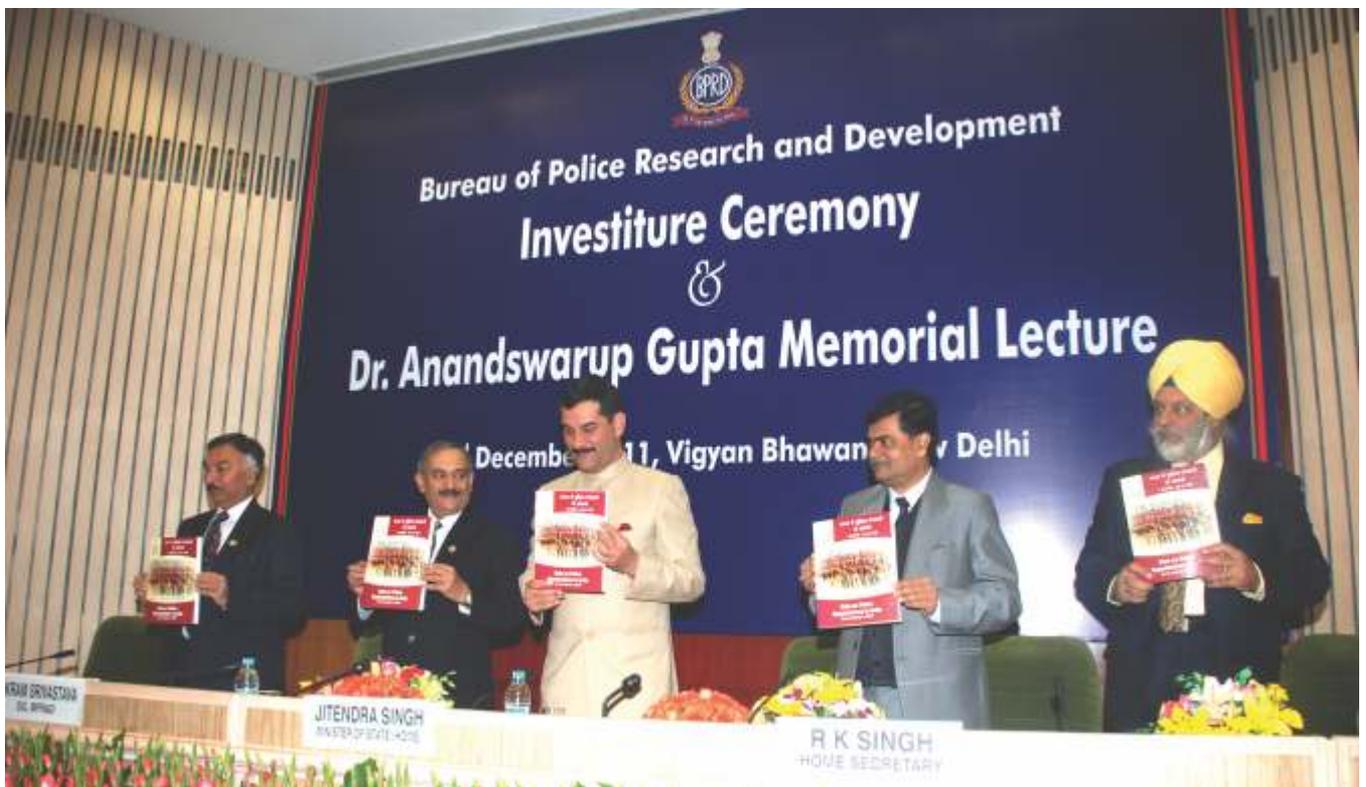

Sh. Jitender Singh, Union Minister of State for Home, addressing the gathering on the occasion

Dr. Ish Kumar, Director, NPM. BPR&D Receiving the President's Police Medal for Distinguished Service on the occasion

determined by the general will. Positive, Sympathetic Governance that is transparent, accountable and has integrity is required, he said. He also pointed out that it was high time that proper investment was made in police both in terms of increasing their strength and equipping them with modern gadgetry.

Two books: “ Data on Police organization in India” and “Occupational Stress and Emotional Intelligence” published by BPR&D were released by the Chief Guest, Hon'ble Minister, Shri Jitendra Singh on the occasion. The programme ended with the vote thanks by Sh. K.N. Sharma, ADG, BPR&D.

Book Releasing Ceremony on the occasion

Training Division

Ghaziabad CDTs

BPR&D starts 1st Training Course at newly established CDTs

Sh. Mullappally Ramachandran, Union Minister of State for Home presiding over the Valedictory Function

Shri Mullappally Ramachandran, Hon'ble Union Minister of State for Home presented Course certificates to the participants during the Valedictory Function of the first Training Course of the newly established Central Detective Training School (CDTS) at Ghaziabad (UP) on 20-12-2011. He also unveiled the flag of CDTs Ghaziabad. It is the fourth CDTs set up by the Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPR&D) in a record time.

Hon'ble Minister in his address said that Criminals are always one step ahead as such there is requirement to train police officials with the modern technology and in scientific investigation, so that they can keep pace with new innovations by constantly sharpening their skills by training.

Hon'ble Union Minister of State for Home Presenting Certificates to one of the Trainees of the First Training course

Earlier, Shri A. P. Singh IPS, Director, Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) inaugurated the new Central Detective Training School at Ghaziabad on Monday 16th January 2012.

Shri Vikram Srivastava, Director General, BPR&D presented memento to the Chief Guest and addressed the gathering. In his speech he said that fifth CDTs is likely to come up at Jaipur (Rajasthan) during the next month. There were 36 participants of the rank of ASI to Dy S. P. from Orissa, Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Gujarat, Haryana and other parts of the country who participated in this five days training programme held at CBI Academy, Ghaziabad.

BPR&D is not only organising training courses for State and Central Armed Police Forces officials

Shr A.P. Singh, Director, CBI inaugurating the 1st Course at Ghaziabad CDTs

but also imparts training to foreign police officials from Maldives, Bhutan, Nepal, Afghanistan, Sri Lanka etc. in various fields of police investigation.

The opening of CDTs at Ghaziabad is a welcome step in the field of Police Training.

Hon'ble Minister is handing over the new flag for Ghaziabad, CDTs

BPR&D Set Up CAPT House In Bhopal

Sh.G. S. Chaudhary, Dy Director, Training, BPR&D Standing in front of the acquired building and performing the Bhumi Pujan ceremony with his team

Under the dynamic leadership of Shri Vikram Srivastava, DG BPR&D, one more feather in the cap of Bureau has been added on 29th December, 2011 with the take over of one bungalow at the prime location of Bhopal City from the Madhya Pradesh Government for establishment of Central Academy of Police Training (CAPT) House.

The Central Academy for Police Training has been set up in Bhopal under the 11th Five Year Plan Period for which the land has already been acquired at Bhopal from the Government of Madhya Pradesh. In the acquired land, the construction work of pre-fabricated shelters costing 7.62 Crores and erecting the boundary wall works and perimeter fencing is in progress.

As of now, CAPT Bhopal is functioning from its camp office at Jawahar Lal Nehru Police Academy at Sagar. But, with the establishment of 'BPR&D House' the on-going work of setting up of Police Academy at Bhopal will be geared up.

Training course on "Corruption and Future Governance"

Bureau has organized a course on "Corruption and Future Governance" for senior Police officers at CBI Academy, Ghaziabad

Participants of the course on "Corruption and future Governance"

Vertical Interaction Course(VIC)

BPR&D organized a six-day vertical Interaction Course on "Tactical Preparedness for Counter Terrorism" at Sher-I-Kashmir Police Academy, Udhampur, J&K from 28th Nov. to 3rd Dec, 2011. Senior police Officers from the northern region attended the course.

BPR&D

First training course kick-starts at newly-established CDTs

Union Minister of State for Home Mullappally Ramachandran presented course certificates to participants during the valedictory function of the first training course of the newly-established Central Detective Training School (CDTS) at Ghaziabad in Uttar Pradesh recently. He also unveiled the flag of CDTs Ghaziabad. It is the fourth CDTs set up by the Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPR&D) in record time.

Union Minister of State for Home Mullappally Ramachandran presented course certificates to participants during the valedictory function of the first training course of the newly-established Central Detective Training School (CDTS) at Ghaziabad in Uttar Pradesh recently. He also unveiled the flag of CDTs Ghaziabad. It is the fourth CDTs set up by the Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPR&D) in record time.

Earlier, Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) director AP Singh inaugurated the new school. BPR&D director general Vikram Srivastava presented memento to the chief guest and addressed the gathering. He said that the fifth CDTs is likely to come up at Jaipur in mid-February this year. About 36 participants of the rank of ASI to deputy SP from Odisha, Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Gujarat, Haryana and other parts of the country were present at this five-day programme held at the CBI Academy, Ghaziabad.

BPR&D Founda

Bureau of Po (BPR&D) cele

Delhi. The ce Ceremony' w State for Ho Police Medal Police Medal 2011 to offic Home Secret Sandhu, Dire forces, i.e., D CBI were also

The Times of India
Date: 02/02/2012

MHA plans school to train spies, cops

New Delhi: As part of the Centre's attempt to strengthen security infrastructure and equip personnel with sophisticated gear, the home ministry has approved several proposals for paramilitary forces, including the setting up of a selective training school to produce elite members of high-tech units. It also plans to buy and use low intelligence for internal security duties.

Advanced Technological Central Detective Training School (CDTS) - will be set up in Ghaziabad in UP by the Union Minister of State for Home. The Ministry of Police Research and Development (BPR&D) has approved the proposal for acquisition of 8.57 acres of land for establishment of the school, which will be set up in Ghaziabad in UP by the Union Minister of State for Home.

Senior officials of several central police forces and intelligence Bureau, police personnel from states and Union Ter

Soon, psychological profiling of cops to 'select best man for job'

MHA plans police modernisation to tackle cyber crime, terror; sends proposal to state

NEW DELHI: The Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) has approved a proposal to set up a Central Police Research and Development (BPR&D) school for training police officers in psychological profiling of cops to 'select best man for job'.

The proposal is to set up a Central Police Research and Development (BPR&D) school for training police officers in psychological profiling of cops to 'select best man for job'.

Most IPS officers failed to meet expectations, says Nikhil Kumar

NEW DELHI, DECEMBER 23

NAGALAND Governor and former Delhi Police Commissioner Nikhil Kumar on Friday said that barring a few, most IPS officers had "failed" to meet the expectations of the people.

Delivering the annual Anandwarup Gupta Memorial Lecture organised by the Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPR&D) on "Good Governance", he said, "My friends, please forgive me for saying this, we the constabulary image of the IPS and of the police." "There may be some individuals in their own individual capacity, somewhere, doing extremely good work but the sum of the whole is that we have not been able to do what was expected of the police," he said.

Asking BPRD Director General Vikram Srivastava to conduct a study on improving both the IPS and police services, Kumar said, "The fact (is) that the constable doesn't get his due either from the government or from the pub-

INDIAN EXPRESS

दैनिक जागरण 21/01/2012

Union Minister of State for Home Mullappally Ramachandran, Hon'ble Union Minister of State for Home has presented Course certificates to participants during the Valedictory Function of the first Training Course of the newly established Central Detective Training School (CDTS) at Ghaziabad (UP).

Union Minister of State for Home Mullappally Ramachandran, Hon'ble Union Minister of State for Home has presented Course certificates to participants during the Valedictory Function of the first Training Course of the newly established Central Detective Training School (CDTS) at Ghaziabad (UP).

Mullappally Ramachandran, Union Minister of State for Home, Government of India was seated on dais left to right during the Valedictory Function of 1st Training Course of Central Detective Training School (CDTS) at Ghaziabad (UP).

in NEWS

Celebrates 41st Foundation Day

Police Research and Development celebrated its 41st Foundation Day, in New Celebrations included 'Investiture' where Jitendra Singh, Union Minister of Home, presided and gave away Presidents Police Medals for distinguished services and Indian Police Medals for meritorious services for the year 2011 to officers of the BPR&D. R.K. Singh, Union Home Secretary, was the Guest of Honour. Nehchal Sandhu, Director, IB; Heads of different police forces like CRPF, BSF, SSB, ITBP and Director of Police Research and Development were also present.

Star Times

12

DRY FUNCTION

TRAINING SCHOOL

Union Minister of State for Home, Jitendra Singh, was the Chief Guest at the Valedictory Function of the Trainers Course CDTS, Ghaziabad. He was accompanied by Union Home Secretary, R.K. Singh, and Director of Police Research and Development, Nehchal Sandhu. The ceremony was held at the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) School, Ghaziabad. The Minister presented Police Medals to the officers of the BPR&D for their meritorious services during the year 2011. He also presented Indian Police Medals to the officers of the BPR&D for their meritorious services during the year 2011. The Minister also presented Police Medals to the officers of the BPR&D for their meritorious services during the year 2011. The Minister also presented Police Medals to the officers of the BPR&D for their meritorious services during the year 2011.

MAIL TODAY Special Initiative

Mail Today, New Delhi, India, December 23, 2011

POWERSCAPE

A weekly round-up of news and developments in government and public sector enterprises for you

The Bureau of Police Research & Development's 41st Foundation Day is being celebrated today at Vigyan Bhavan, New Delhi. Union Minister of State for Home, Jitendra Singh will be the chief guest and Home Secretary R. K. Singh will be the Guest of Honour on the occasion. Vikram S. D.C. BPR&D will deliver the address. BPR&D is an important wing of the home affairs, which has been established in recognition of the need for a specialised agency for police research and development in the country. The organisation undertakes research studies of police and prison systems and is responsible for promoting application of science and technology to law, engineering and developing programmes for the police forces of various states and also for prison systems of the different states and administration of home affairs on police and prison matters. It also advises the central government on the matters of development, modernisation of police forces.

A nodal agency in the field of police management, administration and prison reforms, the Bureau of Police Research & Development (BPR&D) turns 41

MODERNISING POLICE FORCES

Police forces across the country, BPR&D has specific clusters of functions related to the study of problems affecting prison administration, and the promotion of research and training in the field of law, engineering and developing programmes for the police forces of various states and also for prison systems of the different states and administration of home affairs on police and prison matters. It also advises the central government on the matters of development, modernisation of police forces.

application of science and technology to law, engineering and developing programmes for the police forces of various states and also for prison systems of the different states and administration of home affairs on police and prison matters. It also advises the central government on the matters of development, modernisation of police forces.

country. Its basic job is to review the present state of police and identify the future training needs of police personnel, keeping in view the socio-economic and political changes and technological advances. This division designs and recommends training strategy and training methodology for the training establishments of states and CPDs.

BPR&D celebrates 41st Foundation Day

Bureau of Police Research and Development celebrated its 41st Foundation Day at Vigyan Bhavan, recently. The celebrations included investiture ceremony where Jitendra Singh, Union Minister of State for Home presided and gave away Presidents Police Medals for distinguished services and Indian Police Medal for meritorious services for the year 2011 to officers of the BPR&D. Union Home Secretary, R.K. Singh was the Guest of Honour and Director, IB, Nehchal Sandhu was also present.

Foundation Day celebrated

NEW DELHI: The Bureau of Police Research & Development celebrated its 41st Foundation Day here on Friday with Union Minister of State for Home Jitendra Singh giving away police medals to BPR&D officers. The Minister also released two publications: -- Data on Police Organisations in India, and Occupational Stress and Emotional Intelligence.

'पुलिस मय नहीं मित्रता का भाव रखे'

नई दिल्ली। यूरो अहम पुलिस रिसर्च एंड डेवलपमेंट के विज्ञान भवन में आयोजित 41 वें स्थापना दिवस समारोह में गृह राज्य मंत्री जितेंद्र सिंह ने कहा कि पुलिस दायें में अभी परिवर्तन की जरूरत है। पुलिस को भय नहीं, बल्कि मित्रता का भाव रखना चाहिए। इस मौके पर उन्होंने 'बिदा और पुलिस ऑर्गनाइजेशन इन इंडिया' और 'आकूपेशनल स्ट्रेस एंड इमोशनल इंटेलिजेंस' पुस्तक का विमोचन किया। गृह राज्यमंत्री ने कहा कि सहायक पुलिस की अवधारणा सबसे बेहतर रहती है। मित्र पुलिस का भाव लोगों को केवल उच्च स्तरीय सेवा देने के बाद ही पैदा हो सकता है।

The Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPR&D) celebrated its 41st Foundation Day in New Delhi recently. The celebrations included investiture ceremony where Union Minister of State for Home Jitendra Singh presided and gave away President's Police Medals for Distinguished Services and Indian Police Medal for Meritorious Services for 2011 to officers of BPR&D. Union Home Secretary, R.K. Singh was the guest of honour and IB director Nehchal Sandhu was also present. The heads of CRPF, BSF, SSB, ITBP and CBI director were also present.

The chief guest also released two new publications of BPR&D, Data on Police Organisations in India and Occupational Stress and Emotional Intelligence.

In his speech, the chief guest highlighted the need for change in the police. "The Indian Police instead of being perceived as a symbol of fear should be seen as the citizen's best friend. This image makeover of a people-friendly police can only be brought about by providing quality services to the citizens." He emphasised on the need for quality and promoting best practices and quest for excellence.

BPR&D celebrates 41st Foundation Day

31st Asian & Pacific Conference of Correctional Administration

The Director, Research, BPR&D attended the 31st Asian & Pacific Conference of Correctional Administration (APCCA) as the Deputy Leader of Indian Delegation in Tokyo (Japan) held from 9th to 14th October, 2011. He made a presentation on "Engaging and Communicating with the community" during the Conference. BPR&D has also prepared the country paper on "Challenges and initiative in Correction" for the conference.

Vertical Interaction Course (VIC)

BPR&D organized a VIC on "Development of Prison Officers" in collaboration with the Institute of Correctional Administration (ICA), Chandigarh. Dr. BV Trivedi, Dy Director, BPR&D addressed the Prison Officers participating in the course. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Iqbal Singh of Punjab and Haryana High Court (Retd.) delivered the Valedictory address of the course.

MoU with University

BPR&D has entered into Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with JSS University, Mysore for promoting R&D activities on priority areas of mutual interest and benefit.

Presentation on Research Project

A presentation on "Spatial Dynamics of Murder in six cities of Tamil Nadu: A Geographical Information System" was made on 10th Oct. 2011 at the BPR&D Hqrs. by Sh. Vijo Vincent, Research Fellow.

Sh. Sunil Giri of Mata Vaishno Devi University made a presentation on "Ethics on Police and Social Change" on 20-09-2011 at BPR&D, HQ. The meeting was chaired by Director (Res.), BPR&D.

Another presentation on the Plan Study "Non-Registration of Crimes: Problems and Solution" was made by Dr. Arvind Tiwari on 29-12-2011.

BPR&D Workshops

BPR&D organised a Regional Workshop on "Status of Crime Against women" in Southern region at Thiruvanthapuram on 21st November 2011 to revalidate findings and recommendations of the Plan Study on the subject.

Another workshop on Plan Study "Police performance in Extremist & Non-extremist Affected Areas" was organised on 28th November, 2011 in Guwahati to revalidate the findings of the Study on the same subject by the Bureau.

Seminar

A two-day National Seminar on "Challenges before the Police Service in India: Problems and Prospective" was organized by BPR&D in collaboration with Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA), New Delhi from 8-9th December, 2011.

Two new Research studies sponsored

BPR&D sponsored two Research Studies under the Non-Plan Scheme:

1. "Etiology of Crimes Relating to Terrorism and Extremism : A Comparative Analysis"
2. "Fatigue in Police Personnel-Causes & Remedies"

Fellowship Award Committee meets

BPR&D organized a meeting of Fellowship Award Committee on 25-11-2011 to award six fellowships for the Doctoral Work in Criminology, Police Science and Correctional Administration.

Workshops/Seminars

BPR&D sponsored a three- day workshop on conflict Management to Maharashtra Police Academy, Nashik.

BPR&D Releases following Publications

- Genesis & Spread of Maoist Violence
- Model Prison Manual
- National Policy of Prison Reforms
- A Study on Emotional Intelligence.

National Police Mission

Presentation by OST being held at Hyderabad city Police Hqrs.

Presentation by OST

OST made a presentation on Conceptual Design of Incident Command Centre at Hyderabad on 12-12-2011. The comments of stakeholders like fire department, health department, disaster management & Commissioner of Police, Hyderabad on various task reports submitted by OST have been sought. It was felt that OST has not submitted a detailed design, hence either its scope should be extended or fresh global tenders be invited for conduct of pilot in Hyderabad City based on deliverables. A Presentation was also made by Sh. Dinkar Borde, Retd. Telecom Engg. (GOI) on Dial 2611 Project.

Union Home Minister's Review of Action Plan 2011-12

Union Home Minister reviewed the Action Plan (2011-12) of Police Modernisation Division of MHA including National Police Mission(NPM) on 14-11-2011. The HM directed:

- a) to put note for Cabinet's approval for notification of NPM.
- b) to expedite orders on 4 proposals submitted by BPR&D on revamping of NPM

- c) to check up with IFD regarding delegation of powers to DG, BPR&D (w.r.t. NPM).
- d) to send agenda for ESG meeting.
- e) to expedite and ground The Dial 100 Project

Union Home Secretary Reviews NPM action plan

Sh. R.K. Singh, Union Home Secretary reviewed the National Police Mission action plan on 07-12-2011. The Home Secretary desired that MM-01 should work on a project "Separation of Law and Order from crime investigation" and asked Director(NPM) to work out a detailed implementation programme for Soft Skill Training for police personnel in the Country.

Presentation on NPM budget

A presentation was made before the Union Home Secretary on budget projections of National Police Mission Division for the 12th five year Plan (2012-17). The Union Home Secretary gave in principle approval for a budget of Rs. 3608/- Crores for nationwide implementation of various NPM projects.

Consultative Committee Meeting

The Committee met on 25-11-2011 and recommended that Community Policing needs to be given a thrust in the whole country. Dr. Keshav Rao, MP from Andhra Pradesh suggested for creation of a separate Community Policing Wing in each State Police on the lines of CID/Intelligence Wing. BPR&D was directed to examine the above proposal and submit a report to MHA.

Meeting of MM:02 (Community Policing)

A meeting of MM:02 was held in Delhi on 20-12-2011 and discussions were held on formation of draft act on Community Policing, functioning of proposed Community Counselling Centres, preparation of a Documentary film on Community Policing and Action plan for the conduct of Soft Skills Training for Police Personnel in all States/UTs Community Policing in Naxal affected areas & Alternate Dispute Resolution. Discussions were also held on formation of a separate community policing wing in each State Police /UT.

Meeting of Micro Mission:01 (HRD)

Meetings of MM:01 group were held on 18-11-2011 and 26-12-2011 at CBI Hqrs, New Delhi.

Meeting of Micro-Mission-01 held on 26-12-2012 at CBI,hqrs.Delhi

It was decided by the group that a Directorate headed by IG will be established in the BPR&D Hqrs for developing standard training books & Training material for police personnel of various ranks. Sh. Alok Sharma, IG, PAC, Haridwar made a presentation on above project.

Smt. Renuka Mishra, IG, Adm, UP made a

Meeting of Micro-Mission-01 held on 18-11-2011 at CBI, hqrs. Delhi presentation on project CAREPOL (Police welfare).

Sh. MK Jha (ADGP), TNUSRB made a presentation on Transparent Recruitment Process to curtail the time span from 6-8 months to 2-3 months for one recruitment cycle.

It was also decided by the group that a symposium with the Heads of Recruitment from all States/ UTs & CPMFs should be conducted by the BPR&D every year for sharing their experiences & best practices.

Sh. A. Hemachandran, ADGP (Int), Kerala was tasked to work on the project "Separation of Law and Order from crime investigation".

MM:06 (Proactive Policing and Visualizing future challenges)

Meeting of MM:06 group was held on 30-11-2011 & 30-12-2011 to discuss and finalize the Project on

Meeting of MM-06 held at SSB Hqrs., New Delhi

DG, BPR&D chaired the Meeting on Micro Mission-03 held at BPR&D Hqrs. on 12th January 2012

Counter Terrorism : Capacity Building at Police Station level in naxal affected areas.

Sh. Venugopal, DIG, CID, HP made a presentation on "Capacity Building at PS level in Cyber Crime Investigation".

Meeting of MM:05 (Process Re-Engineering)

(a) FREEMOC project was discussed on 28-12-2011 and it was decided that a team of officers will visit Mumbai and Chandigarh and study the 'AapKeLiye' and 'SAANJH' centres & widen the scope of FREEMOC to include various aspects of above community police resource centre.

Meeting of Micro-Mission-05 being held at BPR&D, hqrs.Delhi

(b) The 'Court Monitoring System' project was discussed. It was decided to include the following in the project:-

- i) Jail Monitoring System
- ii) Training
- iii) The cost implication of Bridge Software & AMC
- iv) Development of this software in regional language
- v) The SMS facility to witness for attending the court.

It was also decided to Conduct Pilot in Durg Distt. Chhattisgarh and Samba Distt. in J&K for above project.

(c) Shri RK Vij, IGP, Drug Range, Chhattisgarh made a presentation on his project 'Effective Custody Management to reduce the custodial deaths'.

Meetings of Committee on welfare of CAPFs

A meeting with leading banks was held at BPR&D Hqrs. on 8-12-2011 to finalize the housing scheme for Constables & Head Constables of Central Armed Police Forces with Government subsidy. The Bankers were asked to provide information on interest rates, calculation of EMI & other related issues.

(b) Meeting of committee constituted by MHA on welfare of CAPFs, was held in the BPR&D on 14-10-2011 & 15-12-2011, to examine the proposed legal status of the Welfare And Rehabilitation Board.

Symposium of Heads of Police Training Institutes

A two-day symposium of heads of Police Training Institutes was held at PTC, Bhanu, Chandigarh from 1-12-2011 to 02-12-2011. Dr. Ish Kumar, IG/Director, NPM made a presentation on the training components of various projects of NPM during the Symposium.

Snippets

DG, BPR&D, Sh. Vikram Srivastava performing the Ganesh puja at the acquired premises of CBI Building

Outside view of the Building with sprawling lawn

More office sapce for BPR&D

BPR&D under the able guidance and unflinching efforts of DG, BPR&D, Sh. Vikaram Srivastava has finally taken the possession of the ground floor of CBI building with sprawling open lawns. The Ganesh Pujan ceremony was performed at the site by DG, BPR&D. The renovation work has already been started and some of the BPR&D Divisions will be shifted there soon.

Shri Vikram Srivastava, DG, BPR&D presenting Commendation certificates to the officers

Commendation certificates for BPR&D Officers

Shri Vikram Srivastava, DG, BPR&D awarded Certificates of Commendation to BPR&D Officers and staff members for their excellant performance and contribution in making the 41st Foundation Day of BPR&D a grand success.

Modernization Division

Re-authorisation of Night Vision Devices to CAPFs

A Board of Officers was detailed by MHA for the task of re-authorisation of NVD to CAPFs. In this regard a meeting was organized of Board of Officers for re-authorization of Night Vision Devices to CAPFs in J&K, LWE, NE Sectors. After detailed discussions the recommendations have been finalized.

Presentation on Radiation Detection Device

Radiation Detective Devices

BPR&D organized a presentation-cum-Demo on Nuclear Biological & Chemical Radiations Detection Device and Hand Held Banned Narcotic Device by M/s Thermo Fisher Scientific India Pvt. Ltd. The presentation/demonstration was attended by CAPFs and BPR&D officials.

Seminar on Counter Terrorism

Seminar on Counter Terrorism organized by Maharashtra Police was attended by ADG, BPR&D and other senior officer. The Maharashtra Chief Minister addressed the Seminar. ADG, BPR&D also delivered speech on the occasion and graced the dais.

1. Officers of BPR&D inspected SPG Vehicles for procurement by BPR&D and prepared a detailed report.
2. For the first time BPR&D has compiled Database of Uniform/Accountment Items of all CAPFs for use in R&D issues.

BPR&D invites Research proposals

The Bureau has invited Research Proposals for following areas :

- A. Stricter Laws for drunken driving and Standard Operating Procedure for the Traffic Management.
- B. SMART Policemen –Developing Designing and Trial of High Performance Uniform Articles and Accessories.
- C. Development of Effective Non-Lethal Technologies/Equipment and Tactics for Countering Public Agitation with Minimum Force.
- D. Trial and Evaluation of IED Detection/Disabling Equipment.

A number of proposals have been received and research will be carried out in these areas in the coming months.

Ballistic Testing of TATA Bullet Proof vehicle

BPR&D Officers inspected the Ballistic Testing of TATA Bullet Proof vehicle and a detailed report was prepared.

Construction of Model Police Station

Third installment of Rs. 75 lakhs to Punjab Police and 2nd instalment of Rs. 50 lakh to Kolkata were released after obtaining the Utilization Certificate for the money disbursed earlier.

A view of Model Police station underconstruction in Punjab

Others.....

BPR&D Officers get Police Medals

Sh. Y.K Sharma Sh. Harjeet Singh Sh. Diwakar Sharma Sh. PVK Prasad

Police Medals For Meritorious Services

Four Officers of Bureau of Police Research & Development were decorated with police medals for Meritorious Services on the occasion of Republic Day, 2011. Shri Harjeet Singh, PA, Shri Y. K. Sharma, Dy.S.P., Shri Diwakar Sharma, Editor, BPR&D, Headquarters and Dr. PVK Prasad, Principal, CDTs, Hyderabad were conferred with the prestigious Police Medal for their excellent contribution to the Bureau.

Transferred

Sh. MK Chhabra (IPS) Director, Modernization, BPR&D was given a warm send off at a function held on 31-01-2012 at the new campus of Bureau after he completed his deputation tenure in the Bureau. Mr. Chhabra will be on study leave before going back to his Cadre.

DG, BPR&D presenting Bureau's memento to sh.M. K Chhabra

President's Police Medal for Distinguished Service

DR. B V Trivedi, Dy. Director, BPR&D has been decorated with President's Police Medal for Distinguished Service on the occasion of Republic Day, 2012 for his significant contribution to the Bureau in the field of Criminology, Police Research and Correctional Admn. at the national and international level.

Superannuation

BPR&D bid farewell to its two Officers

A warm farewell was accorded to Sh. Deshraj Tomar, Constable, BPR&D and Sh. Jay Prakash, Sub-Inspector on their retirement on 31st January, 2012. Sh. Tomar joined the Service on 07-12-1970 and Sh. Jay Prakash joined the Bureau on 13-01-1971. Being Hospitalised, he could not attend the function but his two sons were present on the occasion.

Sh Deshraj Tomar and son of Sh. Jay Prakash receiving Mementoes from DG, BPR&D during the farewell function