

NEWS LETTER

BUREAU OF POLICE RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT Volume: 2 September-December, 2016 Issue-2

Sh. Rajnath Singh, Union Home Minister inaugurating the New Building of CDTs, Ghaziabad.

A Photo session with winners of Trophies & Medals for Excellence in Police Training

Modernization

19th India International Security Expo:-

As an annual event, Indian Trade Promotion Organization (ITPO) had organized 19th India International Security Expo (ISE), 2016 w.e.f. 19-21st September, 2016.

Bureau of Police Research & Development being the co-organizer had organized one full day National Seminar on “Identifying User Needs of Security Related Equipment and Technology” on 19.09.2016. The conference was attended by approximately 100 Police officers (SP/IGs/ADG) from various State Police and CAPFs. The seminar consisted of three sessions:

The first session was conducted by ‘National Centre of Excellence in Technology for Internal Security’ (NCETIS), IIT Bombay by Prof. Abhay Karandikar, Centre Coordinator and his team.

In the second session, the representatives from Confederation of Indian Industries had discussed the “Importance of an Effective Interface between Industry and Central/State Police Forces for Acquisition of Latest Technology.

The third session had covered Anti-drone solutions, SMART Policing application platform and Tactical Mesh Communication Solution.

5th All India Police Housing Conference

The 5th All India Conference of Heads of Police Housing Corporations, sponsored by this Bureau and hosted by Madhya Pradesh Police Housing Corporation was held at Bhopal on 15th & 16th November, 2016. The aim of this conference was to provide useful inputs and a platform for exchange of ideas relating to Police Housing designs, architecture, new construction technologies & materials and other issues related to the Police Infrastructure.

Police Medals for Distinguished Services

In an investiture ceremony held on 16/12/2016 at CDTS Ghaziabad, Union Home Minister Shri Rajnath Singh handed over the Police Medal for Meritorious Service and Scroll to the following officers of BPR&D/CDTS:-

- 1) Shri P B Chhetry, Assistant Director (Trg), BPR&D
- 2) Shri N K Banerjee, Section officer, BPR&D
- 3) Shri Gurcharan Singh, PA CDTS, Chandigarh
- 4) Shri Ravinder Kumar, Assistant, CDTS, Chandigarh

Union Home Minister Sh. Rajnath Singh giving Police Medals for Meritorious Service to the officers of BPR&D/CDTS

National Police Mission

Deliberations on Recommendations of DsGP / IsGP Conference, 2016

A meeting/conference was held on 28th October, 2016 on Empowerment of Women Involving Policing Activities. A format indicating traits for the ranks of Constable, Sub-Inspector and Dy. SP was discussed during the meeting. Various world-wide methods and modalities adopted to test the aptitude were also discussed in the meeting.

Deliberation of Recommendations of DsGP/IsGP Conference at BPR&D, HQs on 28.10.2016

Training Division

Union Home Minister's Trophies and Medals for Excellence in Police Trainings

An investiture ceremony for giving the medals and trophies for excellence in training was held at CDTS, Ghaziabad on 16.12.2016. The Union Home Minister Sh. Rajnath Singh presided over the function.

The following were the winner Training Institutions at National Level for 2014-15
CAPFs/CPOs: - GOs Training Institute SVPNPA, Hyderabad, NGOs Training Institute CTC Neemuch (CRPF), Others Training Institute RTC Neemuch (CRPF).

States/UTs: - GOs Training Institute RBVRR TSP Academy, Telangana, NGOs Training Institute Grey Hounds Trg. Centre, Telangana, Others Training Institute PTC, Indore, Madhya Pradesh.

The following are the awardees of the Union Home Minister's Disc:-

- (i) SVPNPA, Hyderabad: Ms. Aruna Bahuguna, IPS, Director, SVPNPA
- (ii) CTC Neemuch (CRPF): Sh. Satpal Rawat, DIG/Principal, CTC CRPF (Neemuch)
- (iii) RTC Neemuch (CRPF): Sh. D.S. Rathore, DIG/Principal, RTC CRPF (Neemuch)
- (iv) RBVRR TSP Academy, Hyderabad, Telangana: Sh. M.M. Bhagawat, IPS, IGP, Grey Hounds TS
- (v) PTC Indore, Madhya Pradesh: Smt. Maneesha Pathak Soni, SP, PTC Indore.

Round Table with Law Commission of India

BPR&D organized a round table on 2.11.2016. Various aspects of law of bail were discussed. Issues relating to anticipatory bail, use of forged documents to obtain bail, role of victim in bail hearing, bail in matters relating to foreigners, implementation of section 436(A) CrPC etc. were discussed.

Flagship Advance course on Investigation and Detection of Crime (10 week)

CDTSs Ghaziabad and Chandigarh conducted 10 week flagship course on Investigation and Detection of Crime for the middle level police officers across the country. They have been provided in-depth knowledge and specialized skill for investigating various types of crime.

ATA Courses

42 officers have been trained in 02 ATA Courses on the subject Management of Terrorist Investigation and Post Blast Investigation. The Management of Terrorist Investigation was conducted in India and the Post Blast Investigation was conducted in USA.

02 ATA courses were conducted at CDTS, Ghaziabad on the subject Vital Infrastructure Security Course and Tactical Medical Training Course in which 45 officers were trained.

Photo session with participants and faculties of ATA Course on "Management of Terrorist Investigations" w.e.f. 26.09.2016 to 30.09.2016 at CDTS, Ghaziabad.

DSI Courses

Under Developing Specialist Investigators (DSI) Scheme 43 courses on the various topics have been conducted at various training institutions across India and CDTs. Police personnel were trained on the following topics/subjects:-

(i) VIP Security (ii) Station House Management (iii) Murder/Homicide cases (iv) Traffic Accident cases (v) Bomb & Explosives (vi) Interrogation Technique (vii) Anti Human Trafficking (viii) Economic Crime cases (ix) Cyber Crime cases(x) Advanced technology in Forensic Science (xi) Weapons & Tactics (xii) Investigation of Economic Crime cases.

Highlights of Courses

- In 40 CAPFs courses, nominations of 810 CAPF/State police personnel were sponsored;
- In 22 Army/Counter Naxal courses were coordinated and 357 CAPF/State police personnel were sponsored;
- Five CDTs conducted 74 courses and 1552 Police personnel/officers of Sub-Inspector to Dy.SP level were trained.
- Central Academy for Police Training(CAPT), Bhopal conducted 05 courses in which 103 officers were trained;
- In 09 Management Development Programmes (MDP) and other Thematic Courses, BPR&D utilized 39 slots.
- In 04 Vertical Interaction Course (VICs), 83 IPS/Senior Police officers participated.

Upcoming ATA Courses

05 ATA courses are scheduled to be organized, out of which 01 course on “Crisis Response Team” to be organised in USA and remaining 04 courses on “Identifying and Developing Investigative Information (IDII), Hostage Negotiation, Terrorist Crime Scene Investigation, and Maritime Interdiction of Terrorism” will be organised in India.

- 12 MDPs and other thematic course and 07 VICs will be conducted from the period Jan to Mar 2017,
- 05 CDTs will conduct 61 courses and Central Academy for Police Training (CAPT) Bhopal will conduct 7 courses from Jan to Mar 2017.

Important Meetings/Conferences

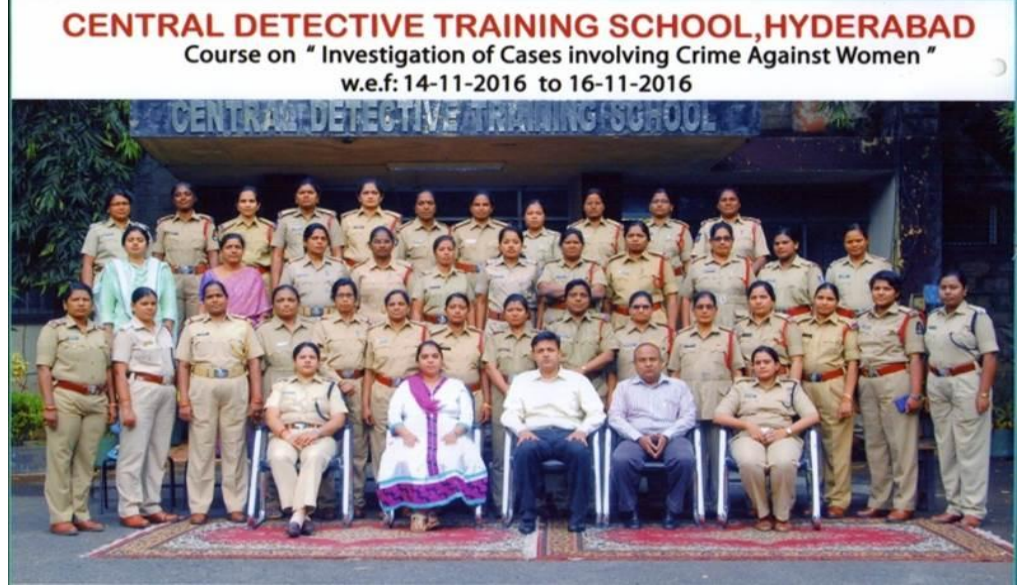

- Dr. Meeran C. Borwankar, IPS, DG, BPR&D attended 36th Asian and Pacific Conference of Correctional Administration (APCCA) held at Tianjin, China from 16th -21st Oct, 2016.
- Sh. B. S. Jaiswal, DIG (Trg.), BPR&D attended International Law Enforcement cooperation and Police force training – International Policing Forum at Beijing, China from 13th – 15th Dec., 2016.

TOT COURSE AT CAPT BHOPAL

12th Training of Trainer Course (TOT) on Investigation was conducted at CAPT Bhopal from 05.12.2016 to 16.12.2016 in which total 17 Police officers participated across the country.

Major Activities of CDTs'

CDTS, Hyderabad organised 14 courses and trained a total of 336 middle level Police Officers (Including 50 Women Police Officers) on different aspects of Investigation including Cyber Crimes.

CDTS, Kolkata organised 18 courses during September to December and trained a total of 351 middle level Police Officers on different aspects of Investigation including Cyber Crime.

CDTS, Jaipur organised 14 courses and trained a total of 273 middle level Police Officers (Including 27 Women Police Officers) on different aspects of Investigation including Cyber Crimes.

CDTS, Chandigarh organised 18 courses and trained a total of 409 middle level Police Officers on different aspects of Investigation including Cyber Crimes.
--	---

CDTS, Ghaziabad organised 13 courses during September to December and trained a total of 250 middle level Police Officers on different aspects of Investigation including Cyber Crimes.
--	---

Special Achievements/Participations

- Sh. Amrit Raj, IPS, DIG/Principal CDTS, Hyderabad was nominated as Chief Judge for 8 competitions under ‘Scientific Aids to Investigation’ in the 60th All India Police Duty Meet held at Mysore from 19th Dec. to 24th Dec., 2017.
- Yoga Classes were conducted for the trainees of the 10 Weeks course i.e. the 128th Advanced Course on Investigation and Detection of Crime started on 28th November, 2016 at CDTS, Hyderabad.
- ShriGurcharan Singh, Faculty of Cyber Crime has been awarded with Home Ministers Medal for excellence in Police Training. ShriGurcharan Singh was also awarded with Indian Police Medal in 2015 and ShriRavinder Singh, Assistant, CDTS, Chandigarh was awarded Indian Police Medal in 2013. All the above medals were given by the Hon’ble Home Minister ShriRajnath Singh on 16.12.2016 in a function held at CDTS, Ghaziabad.

Union Home Minister inaugurates new building of Central Detective Training School (CDTS), Ghaziabad

The Union Home Minister, Shri. Rajnath Singh inaugurated the new building of the Central Detective Training School (CDTS) at Ghaziabad on 16th December 2016.

The new building of the Central Detective Training School Ghaziabad has been completed at a total of Rs. 65.14 Crores. The work commenced in December 2013 and the construction was completed in 30 months (June 2016). The CDTS is built on 8.37 acres and consists of one Administrative Block, Training Block, Hostel Building, Guest House, Hostel for Women, an Auditorium, Badminton Court, Gymnasium and residential quarters. The National Building Construction Corporation [NBCC] has constructed this state of the art training institute.

Sh. Rajnath Singh, Union Home Minister addressing the Dignitaries in the Auditorium during inauguration of new campus of CDTS, Ghaziabad.